Description of the collection

Professor Hewer's papers cover the years 1926 - 1974 and were received from Mrs. O. Hewer.

The papers include many drawings and photographs by Professor Hewer and his colleagues for various wildlife films or to illustrate their written work. These drawings and photographs will be found throughout the collection with the particular subject which Hewer was investigating. Likewise, Professor Hewer kept correspondence referring to specific topics with the relevant data and this arrangement has been retained.

Two box files of committee papers were in the collection. Professor Hewer's own notes, correspondence and annotated papers have been retained but duplicated material (agenda, minutes, newsletters etc) has been discarded. A list of these committees and societies appears in Section IV.

Professor Hewer's early work on Burnet Moths was deposited in the Archives of Imperial College when he was Professor of Zoology.
