CORRESPONDENCE

M.1-M.2949

The correspondence in this section is principally General Correspondence, 1945-1989. Some smaller series of correspondence, originally kept separately, are also included.

Arranged as follows:

M.1-M.2838	GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE
M.2839-M.2886	DAY FILES
M.2887-M.2895	STANDARD LETTERS
M.2896-M.2949	CORRESPONDENCE WITH ROYALTY

Correspondence

M.1-M.2838                      GENERAL CORRESPONDENCE                      1945-1989

This extensive sequence of general correspondence covers the period 1945-1989. The material is divided into folders for each year labelled 'A' to 'Z', with the exception of the earliest correspondence, most of which is arranged in folders covering several years.

The sequence originally contained numerous subject files concerning a variety of Scott's activities. These have been consolidated with related material elsewhere in the collection.

It should be noted that folders for specific years will sometimes contain earlier correspondence, where papers relating to the same person or subject have been kept together.

From 1961 this sequence includes Scott's correspondence as Chairman of the World Wildlife Fund (WWF).

M.1-M.7                      A, 1945-1950.

M.1                      1945-1946.

Includes letter to Scott from R.F. Aickman re British foreign policy, 3 November 1945; papers relating to Scott's illustration of E.R. Aickman's book, Lemuel (London, 1947) (see E.25-E.27 for original artwork and other papers relating to this book).

M.2                      1946-1948.

M.3-M.5                      1949.

Includes typescript copy of a letter [by Scott] to The Times re the British Transport Commission's ban on the roses and castles (the traditional decorative design of canal boats), 25 February 1949; correspondence re the Severn Wildfowl Trust's narrow-boat, Beatrice, and arrangements for a lecture tour in her by Scott.

3 folders.

M.6, M.7                      1950.

Includes correspondence re the problem of aircraft disturbance to the wild geese at Slimbridge and re Inland Waterways Association affairs.

2 folders.
